Cruise Trivia!

Do you get confused as to what side of the ship Port and Starboard are? Think of this – Port has 4 letters and so does left. Port is the left side. Starboard has more letters and so does right. Now, as to which side of the ship your cabin is on when you get out of the elevator, you are on your own. I always go to the opposite side than I think it is on. Usually works for me

Saturdays: By appointment

HIGHLIGHT CRUISE LINE OF THE MONTH

Here at the Cruise Center we love to work with Viking Cruises, and so do our clients. Viking is an all-inclusive, adult only, small ship cruise line. Viking does not try to be all things to all people. Instead, they focus on delivering meaningful experiences to their passengers.

Viking Rivers – Sailing the rivers of Europe, Egypt, Southeast Asia and Mississippi in their famous modern Longships vessels.

The Viking Difference \(vikingrivercruises.com\)

Viking Ocean – Sailing the Mediterranean, Scandinavia & Northern Europe, the Americas & Caribbean and Asia & Australia.

The Viking Difference \(vikingcruises.com\)

Viking Expedition – Sailing Antarctica and the Great Lakes in their custom-built expedition ships built to handle all conditions.
